CONSOLE KEYBOARDS DURING PERFORMANCE

NOTE—We try to have the gate across from the Tennis Court parking open to shorten the walk to the BCT entrance.

Parking—The Closest garage parking is on Allston Way (see map).
 – Parking also at Old Tennis Courts, between Bancroft and Durant off Milvia (see PARK HERE ON MAP). (Tennis Court parking is usually free, but the HS Athletic Department has the right to charge a fee.) –There is also street parking around the Theater.
 – Come early to allow time and to avoid missing the start of the concert.
 – Another option is to park at a nearby BART station; parking is free on Sundays. (Ashby is the closest.) Take BART to the Downtown Berkeley station (3 blocks from the theater).

BERKELEY COMMUNITY THEATRE entrance is located on Allston Way between Milvia and MLK, Jr Way, one block south and two blocks west of the Downtown Berkeley BART station. The Theater entrance is from the courtyard. Enter through the gates on Allston Way (see map). With 3,491 seats, the BCT is the largest proscenium arch theater in the Bay Area.

JONAS NORDWALL on November 2, 2008 at 2:30 PM

Jonas Nordwall is an internationally reknown virtuoso organist with the unique ability to perform both popular and classical music with equal skills. He has toured extensively presenting concerts and workshops. He has over 24 recordings, some on NorCal's own BCT Wurlitzer. Jonas has sappeared on National Television in the US and Australia. Jonas Nordwall has been the organist for the First United Methodist Church in Portland, OR since 1971. he is also the organist for the Oregon Symphony Orchestra; he has made solo performances with them as well as the Portland Chamber Orchestra, Portland Festival Orchestra. Jonas will be the featured artist in March 2009 with the Symphony Silicon Valley in San Jose's California Theatre on their newly restored 4/21 Wurlitzer.

RON RESEIGH on February 15, 2009 at 2:30 PM

Ron Reseigh grew up in a musical family. At a young age, he started winning Theatre Organ competitions. In San Francisco, he won the 1998 American Theatre Organ Society 'Young Organist of the Year' award; and has since gone on to pipe organ conventions and concerts in England, Canada and all across the United States. Ron has become one of the most sought after concert artists on the national Theatre Organ circuit. He enjoys performing music of yesterday and today, often including music by composers like Scott Joplin and John Williams.

Ron Reseigh is not to be missed when he joins us at the BCT in February 2009.

JIM RIGGS on March 15, 2009 at 2:30 PM

When swing music is combined with the pipe organ, one name always comes to mind among those who know: Jim Riggs, the resident organist at Oakland's famed Art-Deco Paramount Theatre. Jim takes those twenty-ton God Boxes and makes them get up and dance. Audiences worldwide have found themselves tapping their toes and bobbing their heads to the beat. If they think the pipe organ is good for just churches and funeral homes, Riggs works his musical magic and they see the light. Some fans actually call him Reverand Rhythm.

LEW WILLIAMS on May 3, 2009 at 2:30 PM

Lew Williams returns to play for us again; we last heard him here in 2006. Lew brings his great muscianship and witty humor to entertain us from our stage. He is well known to Theatre Organ Concert goers and his Big Band interpretations are legendary. Lew has played many concert tours in England and performed in Australia and Paris, France. Lew Williams is also an accomplished Classical Organist; he has performed with several symphony orchestras.
